

ICKENHAM & SWAKELEYS HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

GRAHAM TARLING

Graham Tarling has been a Horticulturist for 38 years, educated in the industry at Norwood Hall College Southall, and Writtle College Essex, he holds The Ordinary National Diploma in Amenity Horticulture. He has worked in Savill Garden Windsor, and for the London Borough of Hillingdon for many years. He now runs his own garden maintenance business which includes occasional tree work in Ickenham & Ruislip. He is the present Chairman of Ickenham & Swakeleys Horticultural Society and has been Lecture Group Secretary for fourteen years.

GRAHAM'S TALKS

1. Winter in Ickenham. A Horticulturist's winter time view of Ickenham, looking at Trees, Shrubs, Bulbs & Features.
2. One Year at Glebe. (Available In November 2011). A Very light hearted look at one season at our local allotment, includes a short film at the end of the slide show.
3. Caribbean Girl. A Presentation about my holiday to Jamaica in December 2008.
4. Tree Down In Ickenham! The January 18th 2007 storm caused widespread damage to trees in Ickenham and surrounding areas. I was lucky enough to capture it on film.
5. Friend Or Foe. A humorous look at various pests and allies of different shapes and forms and their control measures. Please expect the unexpected!
6. Ickenham & Swakeleys Horticultural Society. A Presentation all about what benefits our society offers to our members.

For more info and fees for his talks contact Graham Tarling 07985 470025

email. gtarling@blueyonder.co.uk